The Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) used by most of the Christian world offers three readings for these special times. They are referred to as Proper 1 for Christmas Eve and Day, Proper 2 for Christmas Eve & Day (Dawn) and Proper 3 for Christmas Eve and Day. The Lutheran Church Missouri Synod (LCMS) adds a fourth set of readings for Christmas Eve and uses the Proper 1 readings for a Midnight Service on Christmas Eve.

The chart that follows (http://wordtoworship.com/lectionary/lcms ) outlines the readings and gives you active links through www.biblegateway.com to each of the readings in the translation of your choice. "Find related songs" will connect you to a linkable list of contemporary worship songs based on the Scriptures for that day.

The Lutheran Service Book and The Lutheran Hymnal have many hymns appropriate to these services. Entering the name of the hymn on a Google search and choosing "Videos" will give you many variations on the hymn. Using "From heav'n above to earth I come" as an example (LSB, 358 – TLH 85), will give you 4,810,000 results. Those who are familiar with reading "Living the Lutheran Lectionary" have come to enjoy the weekly visit from Ted and Rick. "Each week, Rick (the one with the dark nose) and Ted discuss one of the assigned readings from the Common Lectionary. Their conversation drives at a point and sometimes sparks a laugh."
